

- Al Gore: former VP of the USA, leading climate change campaigner, Nobel Peace Prize winner, Academy Award winner, Emmy winner. Gore lead the US delegations to the Rio Earth Summit and Kyoto Climate Change conference. He chaired a meeting of the full Club of Rome held in Washington DC in 1997.
- Bill Clinton: former President of the United States, founder of the Clinton Global Initiative
- Jimmy Carter: former President of the United States, Nobel Peace Prize Laureate
- Mikhail Gorbachev: CoR executive member, former President of the Soviet Union, founder of Green Cross International and the Gorbachev Foundation, Nobel Peace Prize winner, co-founder (with Hidalgo) of the Club of Madrid, co-author (with Strong) of the Earth Charter
- Tony Blair: former Prime Minister of the United Kingdom
- Eduar Shevardadze: former Soviet foreign minister and President of Georgia
- Henry Kissinger: former US Secretary of State
- Helmut Kohl: former Chancellor of Germany
- Richard von Weizacker: former President of Germany
- Gro Harlem Bruntland: United Nations Special Envoy for Climate Change (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Special_Envoy_on_Climate_Change), former President of Norway
- Vincente Fox: former President of Mexico
- Juan Carlos I: King of Spain
- Dona Sophia: Queen of Spain
- Jose Luis Rodriguez Zapatero: current Prime Minister of Spain
- Hassan bin Talal: President of the CoR, President of the Arab Thought Forum, founder of the World Future Council (<http://www.worldfuturecouncil.org/>), recently named as the United Nations 'Champion of the Earth' (<http://www.unep.org/champions/Winners/winners2007/talal.asp>)
- Queen Beatrix of the Netherlands
- Prince Philippe of Belgium
- Carl Bildt: former President of Sweden
- Vaclav Havel: former President of the Czech Republic
- Kim Campbell: former Prime Minister of Canada and Senior Fellow (<http://www.gfna.net/>) of the Gorbachev Foundation